

British School of Bahrain (BSB) yesterday presented top internationally performing GCSC students with awards to mark their achievement. Recipients of this year's honours were: Layla Al Ammari, who received the highest global GCSE mark for Art & Design: Fine Art, and Adnan Demachkieh, the leading international GCSE scorer in French. The awards were presented to the students by the British Ambassador to Bahrain Simon Martin.