

■ The British School of Bahrain (BSB) donated BD2,328,705 to the United World Schools (UWS), a charitable institute dedicated to providing education to children in developing countries by building village schools. Above, former BSB head of juniors and current UWS associate programmes director Katy Brand, centre, receives the donation from BSB staff and students.