

Two GCSE students of British School of Bahrain were presented with awards to mark their global achievements. Layla Al Ammari received the highest global GCSE grade for Art and Design: Fine Art, while Adnan Demachkieh was the leading international scorer in French. The awards were presented by British Ambassador Simon Martin in a ceremony held at the school, attended by school head Julie Gilbert, staff, parents, students and guests. Above, Mr Martin, third from left, and Ms Al Ammari, third from right, with school officials at the ceremony.